

Adam Lazarowicz

Illinois, USA | alazarowicz@hawk.iit.edu | 260-804-5147

Professional Summary

Motivated third-year Business Administration and ITM student at Illinois Institute of Technology, with a 3.5 GPA and coursework in data modeling, networking, operating systems, and open-source development. Passionate about the intersection of business and technology, seeking a Business Analyst or related role to apply analytical, technical, and strategic skills.

Education

Illinois Institute of Technology | Chicago, IL

Bachelor of Science in Business Administration & ITM | Expected 2026

GPA: 3.5

Relevant Courses: Data Modeling & Applications, Intro to Data Networks & Internet, Operating Systems & Hardware, Open Source App Development, Information Systems & IT, Business Strategy, Finance, Marketing.

Indiana Tech | Fort Wayne, IN

2022 - 2023

Athletic Achievements: Came second in WHAC Conference, won the WHAC Tournament, participated in the opening rounds of the National Tournament.

Work Experience

InterSoccer | Switzerland

Soccer Coach & Private Trainer | August 2021 - Present

- Designed and led individual and group training sessions, focusing on skill development.
- Managed client relationships and customized training programs tailored to player needs.
- Developed leadership, teamwork, and communication skills through mentoring young athletes.

Skills & Competencies

Business & ITM: Business analysis, data modeling, information systems, IT infrastructure, business strategy.

Technical: SQL, Python (basic), Microsoft Excel, Open-Source Development, Networking Fundamentals.

Soft Skills: Leadership, Problem-Solving, Communication, Team Collaboration.

Hobbies & Interests

Soccer

Skiing

Traveling

Fitness

Films & Series